

Katherine Johnson, CPA, CFE

Manager
Legacy Professionals LLP
Westchester, Illinois

Katherine is a Manager in Legacy Professionals LLP's Audit Department. She works with many of Legacy's nonprofit clients and is based in the Firm's Westchester, IL office. She has been practicing public accounting since 2019. She earned her CPA credential soon after starting public practice. Katherine also earned Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) designation, which denotes proven expertise in fraud prevention, detection, and deterrence.

Katherine also plays a key role in staff development at Legacy, collaborating closely with the Partner responsible for Manager training to design and deliver comprehensive learning initiatives. She leads the development of internal training programs and resources that support professional growth from entry-level staff through the manager level. Her recent training topics include Nonprofit Auditing Updates and Generational Differences in the Workforce. Known for her engaging and hands-on leadership style, Katherine is a dynamic manager who is deeply committed to cultivating talent and strengthening the Firm's professional development efforts.

Katherine has a BS in Accounting and BA in Psychology, 2014; Eastern Illinois University and a MS in Educational Administration, 2016; Texas A&M University.