

Alistair Almeida

Segment Lead, Asset Owners
CIBC Mellon
Mississauga, Ontario

Alistair Almeida is segment lead, asset owners at CIBC Mellon. He is responsible for growing CIBC Mellon's market share, attracting new clients, and connecting with and supporting both multijurisdictional and multinational pension plans in Canada. Almeida co-chairs the CIBC Mellon Pension Client Advisory Board. Almeida has held a number of progressively senior roles across CIBC Mellon, including leading the Relationship Management team responsible for the investment fund segment and overseeing CIBC Mellon's global financial institutions practice. He joined CIBC Mellon in 2007 from RBC Investor & Treasury Services and has more than 30 years of experience working with institutional clients across the globe, including positions held in Toronto, London and Singapore. Almeida holds an M.B.A. degree from Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto.