

Paul Anthony
General Manager
We Make the Media, Inc.
Portland, Oregon

Paul Anthony is general manager of We Make the Media, Inc., a non-profit multimedia news organization in Portland, Oregon. He was CFO of Shannon Pratt Valuations, a boutique valuation firm specializing in high-value business litigation and was the personal assistant to the chair of Harsch Investment Properties, a real estate investment company. Anthony was elected to a four-year term on the board of Portland Public Schools and served as trustee of Portland Public Schools' Health and Welfare Trust as well as on the board of the Oregon School Boards Association. He has served on many civic boards, committees and commissions in and around Portland. Anthony has written on public and civic policy and has made significant contributions to over 30 business publications, including Valuing a Business and Cost of Capital. He holds an M.B.A. degree with concentrations in finance and sustainability from Portland State University and a B.A. degree in history from Whitman College. Anthony is an International Foundation Trustee Master and has certificates in Public Health Plan Policy, Strategic Benefits Management, and Portfolio and Investment Management.