

Michael E. Auerbach, CPA

Chief Accountant
Employee Benefits Security Administration
U.S. Department of Labor
Washington, D.C.

Michael Auerbach is the chief accountant of the Employee Benefits Security Administration at the United States Department of Labor. He is responsible for managing the resources of the office of the chief accountant and implementing various comprehensive, nationwide enforcement programs relating to certain provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). Auerbach also provides ERISA-related accounting and auditing technical expertise within the Employee Benefits Security Administration and is the liaison with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) and other professional organizations. He provides executive oversight and leadership for EBSA's fiduciary oversight program for the federal government's Thrift Savings Plan (TSP). The TSP is the largest defined contribution plan in the world, with assets of in excess of $800 billion and 6.5 million participants. Auerbach is a certified public accountant and earned his B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Maryland.