

Kathryn L. Bakich

Senior Vice President and Senior Consultant, Health Compliance
Segal
Washington, D.C.

Ms. Bakich has more than 30 years of experience specializing in the research and analysis of federal laws and regulations affecting group health plans. She is a senior vice president at Segal in Washington, D.C. Ms. Bakich served as Segal's national health compliance practice leader for over 20 years, and she is now a senior consultant in the health compliance practice. She is a frequent speaker and author on issues related to employee health and welfare benefits. Ms. Bakich is a member of the National Coordinating Committee for Multiemployer Plans (NCCMP) Working Committee, a subcommittee co-chair for the Employee Benefits Committee of the American Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section, and a member of the American Benefits Council Health and Welfare Task Force. She was selected as a fellow in the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel in 2012. Ms. Bakich is a member of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Government Liaison Committee. In May 2025, Ms. Bakich received the Peggy Browning Award for leadership in educating and inspiring the next generation of advocates for workplace justice.