

Leigh Bennett
Medicare Advisory Services Manager
IMA Financial Group
Dallas, Texas

Leigh Bennett is Medicare advisory services sales manager for IMA Wealth, Inc. in their Dallas office. In her role, Bennett focuses her attention on providing education, guidance and assistance with selecting solutions for individuals transitioning to Medicare. Bennett joined Waldman Brothers in 2010, spending most of her time there in employee benefits, working closely with small- to mid-sized employer groups. In 2012, she began focusing her attention on Medicare solutions in the individual market. In 2016, Waldman Brothers was acquired by IMA Financial Group. Bennett received her bachelor's degree in communication and public address from the University of Wisconsin–Madison. She received two designations from The American College as a health care consultant and in health care reform. She is also annually certified in Medicare product sales. Bennett holds the following lines of authority in the state of Texas: life, accident, health and HMO, and property and casualty.
