

Alain Bokobza

Head of Global Asset Allocation
Société Générale Capital Canada Inc.
Montréal, Québec

Alain Bokobza is currently head of global asset allocation and a member of the SG global research executive committee. He joined SG in 1992 as an equity strategist and was appointed head of cross asset strategy in 2005. Since 2020, Bokobza has also led the “Invest Without Carbon” global and multi-asset research initiative, spearheading SG Research’s pioneering work in the field of low-carbon investment. Prior to joining SG, he spent eight years at Crédit Lyonnais Asset Management (Amundi) as manager of european equities and global commodity funds. Bokobza and his team have ranked #1 in Cross Asset Research (economics and strategy category) in the Institutional Investor/Thomson Extel Surveys almost every year since 2008 (#3 in 2020). He obtained a degree in 1985 from Neoma Business School (formerly Rouen Business School, France) and graduated in 1997 from the Kellogg Graduate School of Management (Northwestern University, Chicago).
