

Lawrence J. Bradley
Executive Secretary-Treasurer
National Electrical Benefit Fund
Rockville, Maryland

Lawrence J. Bradley has been the executive secretary-treasurer of the National Electrical Benefit Fund and National Electrical Annuity Plan for many years. Several years ago, he was also appointed executive director of the NECA/IBEW Family Medical Care Plan (FMCP). Bradley has an extensive background in labor relations and administration serving the electrical industry. He has worked with the Penn-Del-Jersey Chapter, NECA in virtually every capacity of association management and served as the executive director of the Chapter. Working with fourteen IBEW local unions, Bradley has been either a trustee or had oversight of many Taft-Hartley Trust Funds and administered joint labor management agreements. His work has positively impacted the lives of thousands of IBEW members and their families. In conjunction with his IBEW partners, Bradley has initiated many unique and effective programs and strategies, bringing unprecedented labor management cooperation to the Penn-Del-Jersey Chapter. He has also served on the IBEW/NECA Council on Industrial Relations (CIR). In 1997, Bradley was honored with the National Electrical Contractors Association's (NECA's) Association Executive, Distinguished Service Award. In October 2002, he was inducted into the Academy of Electrical Contractors, NECA's highest honor. Bradley is a native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
