

Christopher A. Brown

President and Chief Executive Officer
LAPP Corporation
Edmonton, Alberta

Christopher A. Brown is the president and chief executive officer of LAPP Corporation, the administrator and trustee of the pension fund of the Local Authorities Pension Plan (LAPP). The corporation also supports the LAPP Sponsor Board. LAPP serves the health, municipal and education sectors in Alberta. LAPP is the largest pension plan in the province and the 7th largest in Canada, with 280,000 members and assets in excess of C$60 billion. Brown is a leading pension expert who has worked with regulators and policy makers at both provincial and national levels. Prior to joining LAPP, he practiced law for over 20 years, with a particular focus on matters relating to the governance, investment, administration and regulatory compliance of pension plans and other employment benefits and compensation plans. Brown served as co-chair of the Alberta/British Columbia Joint Expert Panel on pension standards to review private sector pension legislation in the two provinces. He served as president and chair of the board of the Association of Canadian Pension Management (ACPM) and is currently a member of the ACPM National Board of Directors, Executive Committee and National Policy Committee. He is also a member of the Editorial Board of Canadian Investment Review. Brown holds a bachelor of commerce degree from the University of Alberta, a bachelor of laws degree from Osgoode Hall Law School, York University and is an active member of the Law Society of Alberta.