

Raymond J. Buratto

Attorney and Arbitrator
Rochester, Michigan

Mr. Buratto practices labor relations law with particular emphasis on the negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements. He serves the state of Michigan as an arbitrator and fact finder for disputes in the public sector. Mr. Buratto is a trustee on multiple Taft-Hartley funds providing health care and pension benefits to over 50,000 working men, women and their families. His past experience includes service as the interim executive director of a major Taft-Hartley health care benefits fund and as chair of the board of trustees of a multicampus metro Detroit hospital. Mr. Buratto holds both a bachelor of arts degree and master's degree in labor and industrial relations from Michigan State University and is a graduate of the Wayne State University School of Law. He is a certified senior professional in human resources (SPHR) and a graduate of the International Foundation's Trustees Masters Program (TMP).