

Timothy W. Casey

Management Trustee

Teamsters Tri-State Joint Fund and Teamsters Local 443
New Haven, Connecticut

Timothy Casey worked for UPS for 38 years and held various positions within the organization throughout his career. He retired as the New England labor relations staff manager. Casey has also been a member of Association of Conflict Resolution since 2008. He has volunteered at previous International Foundation Annual conferences and has been a member for over 15 years. Casey has a bachelor's degree and continued his education through both Quinnipiac University as well as the University of Connecticut School of Law and holds his certification for mediation and arbitration.