

Alyson Cohen

Senior Benefits Specialist
ZOLL Medical Corporation
Chelmsford, Massachusetts

Alyson Cohen has been working at ZOLL since 2014. Her journey began while she was still in college as a part-time assistant to the director of human resources at ZOLL's Rhode Island facility. After her graduation from Rhode Island College, she accepted a full-time position with the company and has been working as a corporate benefits specialist since 2021. In this role, she cultivated a passion for helping employees navigate their benefits and ZOLL's wellness program. Her devotion to empowering employees to better understand and utilize their benefits has been instrumental in the development of a benefits website and targeted multimedia communications that keep employees engaged and excited throughout the year. Her efforts at ZOLL won her the NEEBC 2023 Rising Star Award which recognizes exceptional promise, dedication, and accomplishment in the benefits field.
