

Brandon Collins, CEBS

Benefits Consultant

NFP

Indianapolis, Indiana

Brandon has spent his last eight years in Indianapolis and Chicago as a benefits consultant. In NFP's Indianapolis office, he focuses on leading innovation and strategy for national clients. His primary focus is group benefits, and he also supports clients with compensation, retirement, high-earner, and employee communications strategies. Brandon's consulting approach is inspired by his background in data analytics and entrepreneurship. He is an avid learner of the industry and consistently analyzes solutions, strategies, and technologies for improved client outcomes. As a Certified Employee Benefits Specialist® (CEBS®), Brandon has served on the CEBS Indiana Chapter board for four years. And, after seeing trends in the market of spiraling pharmacy benefit costs, Brandon received his Certified Pharmacy Benefit Specialist designation in 2019. During his time at Butler University in Indianapolis, Brandon majored in finance and played wide receiver on the football team. Brandon and his wife, Kylee, were born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana. They have a two-year-old son and are excited to continue growing their family!
