

Judy Croon

Canada's Keynote Humourist
Toronto, Ontario

Judy Croon is Canada's keynote humourist. She is a comedian, motivational speaker (including Ted Talks), radio host, Second City stand-up coach and author. Judy has worked with many celebrities, including John Cleese, Jon Stewart and Joan Rivers. Her specials have appeared on NBC, CBS, CTV and The Comedy Network. Judy is a co-author of From the Stage to the Page: Life Lessons From Four Funny Ladies! She draws from her stand-up and coaching experience to entertain, inform and inspire in her dynamic presentation entitled "Relieving Work-Related Stress With Humour." Judy is a regular volunteer with City Street Outreach—a program that feeds Toronto's homeless and needy. She is the creator/host of "Laughlines" and "Stand Up For The Girls," which have both helped raise over $650,000 for breast cancer research.
