

John W. Crouse, M.A., FCIA, FSA

Actuarial Consultant

Johnson Inc.

Edmonton, Alberta

Mr. Crouse is an actuarial consultant with Johnson Inc., a national benefits/home-auto firm whose head office is in St. John's, Newfoundland. He is located in Edmonton. Mr. Crouse provides strategic benefits and pension consulting services to clients in the jointly trustee and public sector areas. He qualified as a fellow of the Society of Actuaries in 1976. Mr. Crouse is a frequent public speaker and has been active in the educational areas of both the International Foundation and the Society of Actuaries. He formerly served on both the CEBS Committee of the International Foundation and the Canadian Board. Mr. Crouse received his B.Sc. degree (honours) in mathematics from the University of Calgary and his M.A. degree in statistics from the University of Western Ontario.