

Susan Dargon-Hart, LICSW

Vice President of Clinical Health Affairs
Massachusetts League of Community Health Centers
Boston, Massachusetts

Susan Dargon-Hart is the vice president of clinical health affairs at the Massachusetts League of Community Health Centers. Dargon-Hart oversees the agency's clinical health affairs department, managing innovative clinical collaborations that target health equality and improve patient health. She also offers resources and continuous support and training for quality improvement. For over 25 years, Dargon-Hart has been deeply committed to addressing substance use, mental health, trauma and health care-related issues in communities around Massachusetts.