

Kerri DiCicco

Vice President, Business Development
Progyny
New York, New York

Kerri DiCicco is the vice president of business development at Progyny and has spent over 30 years in the health care industry. In her role at Progyny, Kerri partners with consultants and employers to provide end to end family-building solutions that drive superior clinical outcomes and cost savings. Prior to joining Progyny, she held various sales roles with Great-West Healthcare and Cigna, and with Anthem where she had responsibility for large accounts.