

Kyle Ewing, M.B.A.

Founder and CEO
TerraSlate
Maui, Hawai'i

---

Kyle Ewing is an entrepreneur, leadership speaker, and advocate for sustainable performance who focuses on how culture and leadership directly impact well-being. He is the founder and CEO of TerraSlate, a global manufacturer trusted by organizations ranging from hospitals and nonprofits to the U.S. military and Fortune 500 companies. Built from the ground up and still founder-owned, TerraSlate has appeared on the Inc. 5000 Fastest-Growing Private Companies list two consecutive years while maintaining a strong emphasis on trust, clarity, and human-centered leadership. Kyle's work centers on helping teams reduce burnout by removing friction, increasing ownership, and creating environments where people feel trusted and supported. He blends operational discipline with empathy, showing that accountability and care can coexist. Kyle holds a B.S.B.A. degree and an M.B.A. degree from the University of Denver; has completed executive education at MIT, Wharton, and Harvard; and has been recognized as a Business Elite 40 Under 40 honoree and Titan 100. He is also the author of the forthcoming book, Business Navigator: A Practical Operating System for Scaling Founder-Led Companies. Kyle lives in Maui with his wife and daughter.
