

Brian Faleiro, CFA

Senior Vice President, Portfolio Specialist
Neuberger Berman
New York, New York

Brian Faleiro, CFA, senior vice president, joined Neuberger Berman in 2011. Faleiro is a portfolio specialist for the Neuberger Berman emerging market and international equity strategies. Prior to joining the firm, he worked at Wellington Management, where he marketed institutional mutual funds in Europe, and Citigroup Asset Management, where he marketed asset management solutions to global intermediaries. Prior to that, Faleiro worked for Boston Consulting Group as a management consultant. He earned a B.S. degree from the Florida International University and an M.B.A. degree from the New York University Stern School of Business. Faleiro has been awarded the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation.