

Madeline (Maddy) Fawcett

Associate Director, Integrated and Global Solutions Practice

WTW

Chicago, Illinois

Madeline (Maddy) Fawcett is an associate director at WTW, where she specializes in global benefits management. She has been a part of the WTW team for ten years, initially assisting multinational clients with their U.S. domestic benefits and expatriate and mobility programs. When Fawcett moved to London, United Kingdom, she made a transition to focusing on global benefits management. In her current position, she collaborates with clients to establish, implement and maintain a global governance model. She plays a crucial role by acting as an extension of her clients, working closely with local businesses across their global operations. Her responsibilities include gathering reporting and data analytics as well as providing local strategic support. Fawcett has had the opportunity to work with clients from various industries such as Amazon, General Mills, Kraft Heinz, Comcast NBCUniversal, Arconic, SC Johnson and AbbVie. She completed her education at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, earning a bachelor of business administration degree in risk management and a bachelor of arts degree in public policy.
