

Leah Fichter

Executive Director of the Pensions Division;
Saskatchewan's Deputy Superintendent of Pensions
Financial and Consumer Affairs Authority of Saskatchewan (FCAA)
Regina, Saskatchewan

Leah is responsible for overseeing the regulation of occupational pension plans and the development of the policy framework for the funding, administration, supervision and regulation of pension plans in the province. She has also spoken about pensions nationally and internationally. Over the course of her career, Leah has worked in several regulatory roles in the public service. She has also been a pension plan administrator and an investment advisor, and she has worked at an insurance company managing pension assets. Leah is vice-chair of the Canadian Association of Pension Supervisory Authorities (CAPSA). From 2019 to April 2023, she was Chair of CAPSA and a member of the International Organisation of Pension Supervisors (IOPS). Leah holds a bachelor of commerce degree from the University of Saskatchewan and a Pension Plan Administration Certificate from Humber College. She has completed the Canadian Securities course and Canadian Options course and has received The Osgoode Certificate in Canadian Financial Services Regulation, Analysis and Decision-Making.