

Ben Fisher

Account Manager, OptiFreight
Cardinal Health
Denver, Colorado

Ben Fisher is an account manager for OptiFreight Logistics, which is a division of Cardinal Health. In his role, which is based in Denver, he teaches hospitals how to save money on FedEx shipping and manages their whole logistics program. Previous to this role, Fisher was on the OR product side of Cardinal Health in the Nebraska Market. He is on the leadership team of the New Perspectives grassroots group within Cardinal Health, where the group meets and talks about subjects that are traditionally taboo in the workplace. Fisher is passionate about equal opportunity for all and education access, among other subjects.
