

Emilie Girard

Plan Sponsor Service Advisor
Desjardins
Longueuil, Québec

Emilie Girard brings more than 12 years of group insurance disability management experience to the table, including the past seven years with Desjardins Insurance. For several years, she worked in claims as a resolution coach, developing a broad knowledge of disability-related issues impacting a wide range of clients. Currently, as plan sponsor service advisor in disability management and prevention at Desjardins Insurance, Emilie brings her wealth of expertise to meetings with clients to boost their overall understanding of best practices for sound claims management. She also plays a leadership role by overseeing files and projects that touch on development and complex, strategic interventions. Emilie holds a bachelor's degree in biology from Université de Sherbrooke. Known for her strong people skills, she's a dedicated, driven professional with a knack for simplifying complex information.
