

Marie-Léa Girouard, CFA, CAIA

Vice-President–Client Relationships

ACM Advisors

Montréal, Québec

Marie-Léa Girouard is vice-president, client relationships at ACM Advisors in Montréal, Québec. In this role, she is responsible for developing new relationships, raising capital and provide outstanding client service for ACM Advisors Ltd. ACM is an investment fund manager (est. 1993) that specializes in the creation, structuring and management of pooled Canadian commercial mortgage funds. Prior to joining ACM, Marie-Léa was an investment consultant at Mercer, where she advised a wide range of institutional clients on asset mix reviews, investment manager selection, ESG integration and much more. She also led performance monitoring efforts, contributed to strategic research, and managed a team of analysts and junior consultants. Marie-Léa is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA). She holds a bachelor of science degree in mathematics from Université de Montréal. Fluent in French and proficient in English, she is known for her proactive mindset, collaborative leadership and commitment to delivering meaningful impact in the investment industry.