

Marc-André Gosselin

Treasurer

Association des Pompiers de Montreal
Montreal, Quebec

Marc-André Gosselin has been a firefighter since 2008 and joined the executive board of his union in 2017. The Association des Pompiers de Montreal is the sponsor of their health benefits plan, which allowed him to sit on the committee that administers the plan and makes governance decisions. As a committee member for the past four years and its president for the past two years, he participated in all stages of the analysis process that the Association launched in 2018 to find ways to optimize the benefits plan and lower costs.
