

Michele Granitz

Head of Benefits
National Life Group
Montpelier, Vermont

Michele Granitz leads the benefits department for National Life Group, a 175-year-old, mission-driven and purposed-filled company headquartered in Montpelier, Vermont, offering insurance and annuity policies to the people who live and work on America's main streets. With over 25 years of experience in human resources, Granitz joined National Life Group in 2014, where her responsibilities include health and wellness benefits, retirement and deferred compensation plans, and executive benefit plans. Granitz began her career in manufacturing, owned her own business and moved on to the hospitality industry prior to joining National Life Group. Granitz holds a degree in psychology and human resource management, is a certified Professional in Human Resources® (PHR®) and is a SHRM Certified Professional (SHRM-CP).