

Lisa F. Green

Deputy Director–Benefit Services Division
Public Employees’ Retirement System of Mississippi
Jackson, Mississippi

Lisa F. Green is the deputy director of benefit services at the Public Employees’ Retirement System (PERS) of Mississippi in Jackson, Mississippi. She plans and directs the activities associated with the Benefit Services Bureau, which consists of the Service Retirement Division, the Survivor and Disability Retirement Division, and the Customer Services Division. The Service Retirement Division and the Survivor and Disability Retirement Division are responsible for processing retirement applications and benefit estimates, performing member account analyses, preparing detailed service credit history reports and offering members a personal contact with PERS. The Customer Services Division encompasses Retirement Education and Field Services as well as the Customer Service Center. Retirement Education and Field Services is responsible for statewide preretirement education seminars, retiree seminars and agency training seminars. The Customer Service Center provides high-quality and timely service to incoming general information calls. Green graduated from Dillard University with a B.A. degree in accounting, and she holds an M.B.A. degree from the University of Phoenix.