

Rosanne Guindon, D.D.N., LL.L

Title Attorney
Eckler Ltd.
Montréal, Québec

Rosanne is a title attorney with over 20 years of experience in the field of pension and employee benefit plans. She is part of a multidisciplinary team and provides guidance and advice to her actuarial colleagues and clients on legal matters related to pension plans. In this role, she is responsible for analyzing the legal aspects of pension plans and providing guidance in the context of pension administration and transactions (e.g., mergers, windups), drafting and reviewing legal documents (policies, contracts, agreements, amendments) in accordance with current legislation, and analyzing caselaw and legislative proposals affecting pension and group insurance plans.

Rosanne is a governance expert. She also contributes to numerous client presentations on topics such as the legal aspects of retirement and fiduciary training for pension committee members. Rosanne holds a law degree from the University of Ottawa and a diploma in notarial law from the University of Montréal. She is a member of the Chambre des notaires du Québec.
