

Jackie Hammond

Executive Director, Apprenticeship Delivery Support Services
Skilled Trades and Professions, Government of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta

Jackie Hammond is the executive director of Apprenticeship Delivery Support Services in Alberta. In her role, she oversees Alberta's apprenticeship and skilled trades certification system. Hammond's team manages engagement with apprentices, industry and post-secondary institutions throughout the province. With new enabling legislation, she is a champion of apprenticeship education being accepted as an alternative and progressive form of postsecondary learning and having the skilled trades professions looked upon as viable careers to explore.
