

Rich Henriksen

CEO and Founder
Nokomis Health, Inc.
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Rich Henriksen is the chief executive officer and founder of Nokomis Health. Henriksen has 35 years of experience in health care systems, coding, billing and reimbursement. He has led contracting and managed care departments at several organizations, including hospitals, clinics and health plans. Henriksen has worked with more than 120 organizations in his career. He is well-known for his dedication, attention to detail and unparalleled depth of knowledge in all aspects of health care coding, billing and reimbursement. He received his bachelor of arts degree in biology from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa and his master of arts degree in healthcare administration from the University of Iowa. Henriksen resides in Minneapolis, Minnesota.