

Sarah Hicks

Partner
Ledbetter Partners
Miamisburg, Ohio

Sarah has more than 20 years of experience practicing law in the area of employee benefits. Prior to joining Ledbetter Partners, Sarah worked at two large regional law firms, where she focused on both multiemployer fund representation and single employer plans. In her current role, Sarah focuses on all aspects of health and welfare plan compliance including health care reform, HIPAA, COBRA and Medicare coordination. In addition, Sarah works regularly with pension plan issues, SUB plans and provides general ERISA compliance advice for Taft-Hartley funds. Sarah graduated from Miami University and earned a law degree from the University of Cincinnati College of Law. She is also a member of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans, the Cincinnati Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Association. For ten consecutive years, Sarah was named a Rising Star Attorney by Ohio Lawyer magazine. Sarah has participated in and led numerous training programs on health and welfare plan compliance through the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans, the American Benefits Council and the American Bar Association.