

Gilles Horrobin, CFA

Chief Investment Officer
Montréal Transit Society Pension Funds
Montréal, Québec

Gilles Horrobin has worked in the financial community for over 25 years. At the beginning of his career, he worked as a trader and analyst for various brokerage firms. Gilles then gained a significant amount of experience in mutual funds marketing and portfolio manager selection at TD Asset Management and TAL Investment Counsel. His portfolio manager career started at CDP Capital where he successfully started and managed a portfolio of International REITs. In 2000, Gilles joined the Montréal Transit Society Pension Funds as portfolio manager U.S. equities. From 2007 to 2012, he also supervised the management of all other equities portfolios. In 2012, Gilles took over the role of chief investment officer and the responsibilities of asset mix decisions, alternative investments and risk management. He is also involved in the industry by sitting on pension investment committees and speaking at various conferences. Gilles graduated from the University of Montréal Business School (HEC) in finance and also holds the CFA designation.
