

Kevin Hu, CFA, FRM

Investment Consultant
PBI Actuarial Consultants
Vancouver, British Columbia

Kevin Hu is an investment consultant at PBI Actuarial Consultants Ltd. with over seven years of experience advising institutional investors, including pension plans and university endowments. His work involves advising clients on strategic asset allocation, selecting and monitoring investment managers, and developing and reviewing investment policies. Spanning both public and private markets, Kevin helps investors build long-term portfolios that are diversified and resilient through changing market conditions. Kevin holds a master's degree in economics from University of Toronto and a bachelor's degree in economics from University of British Columbia. Kevin holds both the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and Financial Risk Manager (FRM) designations. He is also an investment committee member for the Richmond Community Foundation, supporting the organization's long-term financial stewardship.