

Thomas Hynes, M.B.A.

Senior Managing Director
Mesirow
Chicago, Illinois

Thomas Hynes is a senior managing director for the Global Distribution team at Mesirow and is also a member of the firm's board of directors. He is responsible for working with Taft-Hartley and public pension fund investors on Mesirow's private markets investment strategies, with a particular emphasis on private equity and private credit. Tom is also responsible for evaluating new investment strategies as possible additions to the Mesirow suite of alternative products. Prior to his current position, Tom worked as an investment associate in Mesirow's private equity division, where he was responsible for analysis and due diligence on direct investment opportunities. He graduated with honors from the University of Chicago Law School. Tom also earned an M.B.A. degree from Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School of Management and a B.A. degree with honors from the University of Notre Dame. He serves on the Finance Committee for CURE (Citizens United for Research in Epilepsy) and as a board member of Link Unlimited Scholars.