

Wenli Jen, Ed.D.

CEO

Integral Prudence Solutions
Alhambra California

Dr. Wenli Jen is an educational consultant, motivational speaker, entrepreneur, professor, chief executive officer for Integral Prudence Solutions and lecturer at California State University–Dominguez Hills. Her expertise in human development, psychology and education also extends to her work in leadership, strategic planning, program and workforce development, and community/government relations. She has developed several programs for low-income and underrepresented populations as well as at-risk youth and families. Jen speaks about community collaboration, social justice, education and other related topics in international, national and state conferences. She has two published stories in the Asian American anthologies, Pho for Life and Miso for Life. Jen was 2012 Woman of the Year for the 24th Senate District of California, 2013 Woman of the Year for the 49th Assembly District of California and 2014 Distinguished Alumni in Community Service. In 2015, she received recognition from Beijing University of Technology Department of Economics for her leadership and service to the local and international community. In 2020, she was the recipient of the Outstanding Youth Award for the Chinese Benevolent Association. Jen was appointed to the U.S. Health and Human Services SAMHSA Center for Mental Health Services National Advisory Council (2016-2021). She currently serves as regional co-chair for Harvard Graduate School of Education, board member for UC Irvine Anteaters in Education Alumni Chapter, national compliance officer of Chinese American Citizens Alliance and secretary for Chinese American Citizens Alliance–Los Angeles lodge. Jen holds a bachelor of arts degree from University of California, a master's degree from Harvard University Irvine and a doctorate in educational leadership from University of Southern California.