

Sheilla Jones

General Counsel, Vice President of Product Design
OneBridge Benefits
Buffalo, New York

Sheilla is General Counsel and VP of Product Design for OneBridge Benefits. Her expertise includes plan and trust design, regulatory compliance and reporting, plan management and operations for funded health reimbursement arrangements (HRAs). Sheilla serves on the board of HRA Council, Inc., an HRA advocacy organization founded by insurance carriers, brokers, benefits consultants and HRA administrators. Sheilla began her legal career with the Houston office of Vinson & Elkins LLP before serving as Deputy General Counsel for American General Corp. (now AIG) on a variety of commercial and regulatory matters. Since 2003, Sheilla has focused her practice and career on federal regulations and guidance for funded HRAs and tax-exempt trusts, representing leaders in the industry, including VALIC, Gallagher Benefit Services, Inc., and now OneBridge Benefits. Sheilla also served as Chief Research Editor for the Houston Law Review Board of Editors. Sheilla received her B.B.A. degree in Finance from Baylor University and her Juris Doctorate degree from University of Houston Law Center, graduating Cum Laude and Order of the Coif.