

Michael Kamell, CFA, CAIA
Managing Director, Senior Consultant
Verus
Los Angeles, California

Michael Kamell provides a broad range of tailored investment consulting solutions to institutional clients in order to assist them in achieving their long-term investment goals. He is also a member of the Verus investment committee and a shareholder of the firm. Kamell has extensive experience and expertise across virtually every major asset owner segment and plan type, from Fortune 500 corporations sponsoring defined benefit and defined contribution plans, to state and local public pensions, to multi-billion-dollar multiemployer trust funds, as well as nonprofit foundations and operating portfolios. Kamell is a regular speaker at industry conferences and provides thought leadership with respect to the firm's liability-driven investment (LDI) efforts, having authored multiple white papers on the subject. He excels at collaborating with asset owners to deliver comprehensive and unique solutions that improve the efficiency and effectiveness of his clients' investment programs. He began his career in assurance services at PriceWaterhouseCoopers in San Francisco. As a senior associate, Kamell worked to provide assurance over financial reporting for a wide variety of investment management clients ranging from mutual funds and fixed income managers to hedge funds and private equity funds. Additionally, he has extensive experience with performance reporting in accordance with Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS®). Kamell graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara with a B.A. degree. He holds the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license (inactive), is a Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®) charterholder, and is a member of the CFA Institute and the CFA Society of Los Angeles. He is also a Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA®) charterholder.