

Katherine Kohn

Senior Counsel
Groom Law Group, Chartered
Washington, D.C.

Katherine Kohn is in Groom Law Group's Litigation practice group. She specializes in ERISA litigation relating to qualified and nonqualified retirement and health plans, with significant experience in matters involving the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC). Kohn represents clients in PBGC investigations, termination litigation, and distress and standard termination applications, and she advises clients in connection with PBGC subpoenas, plan mergers and spinoffs, plan de-risking transactions, options for sponsors of overfunded plans, and corporate transactions and reorganizations involving pension plans. Kohn also represents clients with respect to multiemployer plan issues, including withdrawal liability and benefits litigation. She also represents clients in Department of Labor investigations, defending third-party subpoenas, and benefits litigation. Before joining Groom, Kohn was an attorney at the PBGC. In that role, she represented the agency in civil actions and bankruptcies in federal courts across the country, including plan termination litigation, as well as in investigations of large transactions or other situations involving plan sponsors. Kohn also represented the agency in negotiations to resolve termination and other statutory liability of plan sponsors.
