Compliance and Workplace Solutions Consultant
USI
Bloomington, Minnesota

Katherine Lacy-Wilson is a compliance and workplace solutions consultant and employee benefits attorney for USI. In this position, she provides employer-focused guidance on compliance solutions with an emphasis on employee benefits. She helps to translate the complexity of employment compliance laws into an understandable solution for clients. Lacy-Wilson joined USI in 2019. Prior to that, she worked in the insurance industry, providing compliance assistance to employers of all demographics. She began her employee benefits career working with the United States Department of Labor in the Chicago Regional Office as an investigator and coordinator of the Voluntary Fiduciary Compliance Program (VFCP). She earned the CEBS® designation, is CEBS Compliant and is a Fellow of ISCEBS. She serves on the Education committee for the Twin Cities chapter of ISCEBS. Lacy-Wilson holds a B.A. degree in Native American law and studies from Mount Holyoke College, a J.D. degree from Suffolk Law School, an LL.M. degree in employee benefits from John Marshall Law School and is licensed to practice law in Illinois.
