Senior Vice President, National Practice Leader, Captives and Alternate Risk
Alera Group
Boston, Massachusetts

Prabal Lakhanpal is a senior vice president and the national practice leader, captives and alternate risk with Alera Group. Prabal leads many of the firm's most advanced client projects, with a focus on employee benefits, captive insurance and alternative risk funding. He drives the strategic and innovative thinking processes and serves as the project lead for some of the country's largest employers. Previously, Prabal was working in various finance and operational roles across the globe. In 2025, Prabal won Consultant of the Year from Captive Review's Cayman Awards and was recognized in their Forty Under 40. He has been featured in Captive Review's Power 50 every year since their 2023 edition. He was also recognized as the 2026 Captives Power Broker by Risk & Insurance. Prabal has his MBA from Babson College and has received the Associates in Captive Insurance (ACI) certification. Prabal currently serves as Chair of the Board of Directors at Captive Insurance Companies Association (CICA), the only domicile-neutral captive insurance association.
