

Othmann Layati, LL.M., CIPP/C

Vice President, National Technical Lead, Financial Services Group

Aon
Montréal, Québec

Othmann Layati is responsible for the handling of complex financial lines claims on behalf of major clients at Aon. He started his career in private practice as a litigation counsel, focusing mainly on commercial litigation and white-collar crime. Othmann later joined an international global law firm focused on insurance where he developed a strong interest in insurance law. With this experience, he honed his litigation expertise in complex construction, mining, and D&O (Directors & Officers) matters before gradually focusing more on coverage work in specialty lines matters. Prior to joining Aon, Othmann held the position of claims manager at a Lloyds specialist insurer where he was responsible for the handling of all claims across the country with a specific focus on cyber matters. In addition to his litigation experience, Othmann has developed a strong interest and expertise in cyber insurance and specifically, privacy laws. He is a qualified lawyer both in France and Québec and holds several law degrees from different universities in France as well as McGill University in Montréal.
