Director of Research, Managing Partner
Marquette Associates, Inc.
Chicago, Illinois

Greg Leonberger is the director of research and a managing partner for Marquette Associates, Inc. An owner of the firm, Leonberger has been with the company since 2008 and has 23 years of investment experience. He leads the firm's capital markets research and directs investment strategies and policies. Leonberger chairs the firm's investment committee and also serves on the OCIO, oversight, alternative investment manager search, health care, defined contribution, and endowment and foundation committees. He has authored numerous papers on portfolio strategy, asset allocation and liability driven investing, and he regularly consults with clients on these topics. Prior to joining Marquette, Leonberger was an actuarial consultant at Hewitt Associates for nine years, consulting on all aspects of pension and post-retirement welfare plans, including funding, accounting, strategy, design and regulatory compliance. Leonberger holds a B.S. degree in mathematics and economics from the University of Notre Dame and an M.B.A. degree with honors in analytic finance from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. He is a fellow of the Society of Actuaries, an enrolled actuary and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries.
