

Nathan R. Lindell

Partner

Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP
San Diego, California

Nathan Lindell is a partner with Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP. His practice focuses on representing aggrieved investors in complex civil litigation. Since joining the firm, Lindell has helped achieve significant recoveries for investors. For example, he was a member of the litigation team responsible for securing a landmark victory from the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in its precedent-setting NECA-IBEW Health & Welfare Fund v. Goldman Sachs & Co. decision, which dramatically expanded the scope of permissible class actions asserting claims under the Securities Act of 1933 on behalf of mortgage-backed securities investors, resulting in a $272 million recovery. Lindell has been named a Super Lawyer "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers Magazine. He earned his bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from Princeton University and his Juris Doctor degree from the University of San Diego School of Law. Lindell is admitted to the California Bar and is licensed to practice in all California State courts as well as the United States District Courts for the Northern, Central and Southern Districts of California.
