

Caroline Long

Vice President, Compensation Practice
Gallagher
Toronto, Ontario

Caroline Long is Vice President, Compensation at Gallagher, bringing over 25 years of Total Rewards experience across public and private sectors. She combines deep technical expertise with a practical, engaging approach to education and communication, helping organizations design effective compensation strategies and navigate emerging trends such as pay transparency. She is a frequent webinar host and thought leadership contributor.