

Rodney Longhofer

Board Member
Valeo Behavioral Health Foundation
Overland Park, Kansas

After a 21-year career at Johnson & Johnson, Rodney Longhofer is now ready to focus his attention on unmasking the stigma associated with mental illness. With personal and professional experiences in mental health, Longhofer hopes to educate the work community on the importance and impact of a healthy mind. Serving as an active board member of the Valeo Behavioral Health Foundation and Friends of Johnson County Mental Health, Longhofer will accomplish this goal by engaging and encouraging healthy discussions involving the Mental Health First Aid at Work curriculum. Longhofer graduated from Emporia State University in Kansas. He resides in Overland Park, Kansas with his wife of 28 years and their two children.
