

Jennifer K.N. Miller

Retirement Plan Administrator
Michigan Education Association
East Lansing, Michigan

Jennifer K.N. Miller is the plan administrator of the MEA-MESSA-MEA Financial Services Staff Retirement Plan and Trust, a defined benefit plan that offers fifteen tiers of retirement and manages over $650 million in assets. She works on the administration and communication of the plan for its participants. Before becoming the plan administrator, Miller was chairperson of the plan board while working at the Michigan Education Association (MEA), the largest teachers union in the state of Michigan, as an executive director for members in the field. Prior to her work at MEA, Miller practiced ERISA and labor law at Dickson Wright, UAW and Basha Diagnostics. She has completed several International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Certificate Series courses and is currently in the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) program of the International Foundation and the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. Miller obtained her juris doctor degree at The University of Michigan Law School.