

Jamaca Mitchell, J.D.

Consultant, Health Compliance
Segal
Washington, D.C.

Jamaca Mitchell is a consultant in Segal's Health Compliance Practice, based in the Washington, D.C. office. He assists clients with compliance issues related to group health plans by drafting and reviewing summary plan descriptions; conducting compliance reviews concerning ERISA, Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act (MHPAEA), COBRA, HIPAA, Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) and other federal laws; and monitoring and presenting on federal statutes and regulations applicable to group health plans. Mitchell joined Segal from the Centers for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight (CCIIO), a component of the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services. He served in many roles at CCIIO, including CCIIO's front office and CCIIO's compliance and enforcement division. Mitchell assisted with drafting the regulatory impact analysis of the Transparency in Coverage proposed rule. Through working for CCIIO, he has extensive knowledge of the PPACA provisions. Mitchell earned his juris doctor degree from Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego. He received his B.S. degree in business management from DePaul University in Chicago and holds a fundamentals of health law certificate from the American Health Lawyers Association.