

Tabitha Mondragon

Director, Global Benefits

Avalara

San Diego, California

Tabitha Mondragon is the director of global benefits at Alvara. She has been in the benefits industry for over 14 years, with 13 years in the consulting space. Mondragon started her career in the consulting world with WTW (formerly Willis Towers Watson) in San Diego, assisting U.S. clients with their benefit programs. She later transferred and started working with emerging multinational organizations, specializing in high-tech. Her passion and area of expertise has been as a Latin American expert, establishing duty of care programs