

Marc-Antoine Morin

Head of Member Engagement, Canada Retirement
Manulife
Waterloo, Ontario

Marc-Antoine Morin serves as the head of member engagement for Manulife. In this role, he leads initiatives designed to steer members of group retirement plans towards better financial health. This includes creating experiences, products and services around education, guidance, advice, and decumulation. Morin has worked in the pension industry since 2005, having started as a defined benefit consultant at a large consulting firm. At Manulife, he has held various leadership roles in group retirement product development. Morin is a graduate of Université Laval's actuarial program, holds an MBA from HEC Montréal, and is a fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA) and the Canadian Institute of Actuaries (FCIA). Outside of work, he is an avid runner and enjoys playing hockey.
