

Kris Mullaly, PMP

Project Manager, Inuit Training Initiatives
Qikiqtani Inuit Association (QIA)
Iqaluit, Nunavut

Kris Mullaly is the project manager for Inuit Training Initiatives at Qikiqtani Inuit Association (QIA). The focus of this division is to support the QIA strategy of increasing opportunities for training, skills development and certification of qualifications that empower and prepare Inuit for current and future employment needs in all Qikiqtani Region communities. Under Kris's leadership, QIA was recently awarded with multi-year funding for the Qikiqtani Skills and Training for Employment Partnership (Q-STEP). He is a Project Management Professional with the Project Management Institute and has a background in public relations, communications, education and training.